

Economic well-being

Idea 4	Taxation and other policies that reduce wealth gaps
Proposal 4c	Expand individual wealth tax policies and coordinate on a global level
Description	Expand individual wealth tax policies (e.g., property taxes, inheritance taxes; financial assets) and coordinate on a global level
How will the proposed action advance equitable health and well-being?	Changes in individual wealth tax policies would create funding for the government to enact policies that advance equitable health and well-being (e.g., public health investments, funding for social determinants of health, reparations)
Is there work we can build on?	Thomas Piketty, Capital in the 21st Century ; Capital and Ideology Daria Roithmayr, " Racial Cartels "
Who would have to act? Who would be key partners?	Key actors: Government International coordination across governments because wealth can migrate so quickly and easily to other countries Key partners: Tax experts in the field
A few high-level action steps	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Proportional modeling of how much taxes should come from each area (corporate, individual, property)</li> <li>2. Make a case for policy change (state and federal levels)</li> <li>3. Link efforts to emerging equity and reparation efforts across the U.S. (federal and state)</li> </ol>
